We provide free of charge (for non-funded children):
Meals, sun cream, snacks, nappies and wipes, and additional services such as Music and Movement sessions, yoga, baby sign and local trips.
The range of extra-curriculum activities increases as the children become older.
(these may change during the year and your child will not access them all at the same time).

When your child is entitled to FREE hours the funding from the Local Authority covers the cost of providing early years education and care. Below are our charges in addition to that.

All additional hours over the eligible free hours will be charged at £5.00 per hour.
A maximum of 1140 hours over the year (if eligible to the extended hours) are provided free of charge.
Meals are charged for. Parents can provide their own food to avoid the charge.
If a child attends all year, the funding will be stretched over 51 weeks.
A voluntary weekly service charge of £1 per day will be applied.

*The service charge is intended to cover the costs of sun-cream and snacks and additional services such as music and movement sessions, yoga, foreign language, Jolly Phonics, Forest school and local trips.
Some of the factors that enable us to provide high quality child care, rated Outstanding by Ofsted.*
